ROUNDUP 1964

Abraham Lincoln High School

San Francisco, California

Dear Mr. Lathrop,

Thank you seems like such a small word for everything that you have done for me. It's been fun in office with you and it will seem funny that after 6 years (my sister + me) that Mr. Lathrop will not be used at the dinner table during good conversations. Although your name will be used every night, it will never be forgotten. Thank you for the guiding help that you have given me - not only in Physics and the Comp but with my very little problems. Thank you to the best teacher the most understanding teacher in the world who will never be forgotten.

Go Mr. Lathrop
 you're very very much appreciated
 by the L.H.S. Student Council

It is with a feeling of pride that one looks back upon the 1963-1964 record of Abraham Lincoln High School, a community of more than three thousand students and teachers. Not only has the school, and its graduates, compiled a record of outstanding academic achievement, but equally outstanding has been its record in that highly important adolescent world of extra-curricular activities.

It is in the field of social events, rallies, athletic events, and organization work that teen-agers learn the vital lessons of getting along with one another—of learning to evaluate one another using criteria founded on the basic dignity of all mankind. Abraham Lincoln High School can hold its head high when one inspects its record in this area. Discrimination of any kind—be it based on race, religion, economic status or anything else of an equally reprehensible nature—is missing. It is true that there are still a bigoted few who cling to false and truly ridiculous standards of status. But Abraham Lincoln is proud that its students and faculty, working together and each respecting the dignity of the other, have successfully fought the vileness of those who would set man against man.

I extend my sincere congratulations to the classes of January and June 1964 and wish you well.

Abraham L. Hieselberg

Principal

Congratulations to all the 1964 graduates—as a group you have made an outstanding record during your three years here.

These three years of growing up have provided a firm foundation on which to build—lifelong friendships have been started; good citizenship has become a habit, interest in, concern for, and acceptance of one's fellowman have all been intensified. Most of you have enjoyed being in school and take away many happy memories—we have enjoyed your being here and you leave with us happy memories of your classes.

Our best wishes go with you.

Marie D Luck

Dean of Girls

Congratulations to our graduating Seniors! This year the academic achievements of the boys and girls of Abraham Lincoln have been exceedingly high and in the future we shall look forward to having our students supply many of the answers that the world is now calling for in the fields of Science, Mathematics and Medicine, among others.

I personally wish to thank all members of the student body for their graciousness in assisting me in innumerable ways while I was substituting for Mr. Passanisi in the office of the Dean last fall.

William J. Ryan

Acting Boys' Dean, F 63

On February 12, 1959, Carl Sandburg, biographer of Abraham Lincoln, addressed a joint session of Congress to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the great president's birth. Sandburg quoted from a letter written by Lincoln at the time of a dear friend's death. The year was 1864 and Lincoln, unable to be present, wrote instead. We can reflect upon this message. It applies to all Americans, past, present, and future. Those of us enjoying freedom have only to thank those who worked, sacrificed, endured hardship, and fought for it.

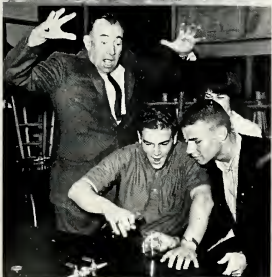

Abraham Lincoln wrote, "Let him have the marble monument along with the well-assured and more enduring one in the hearts of those who love liberty, unselfishly, for all men."

Class of Fall 1963

BRUCE FISHER
President

RICHARD WILLIS
Vice President

JOANNE MEHAK
Secretary

The "biggest and the best" is the boast of many new classes as they enter Lincoln. However, the class of Fall 1963, began their high school careers with a slightly different motto. "Quality not quantity" seemed to be appropriate for these 250 low sophs who desperately desired to prove that they were the "greatest class yet."

The first brave souls, who undertook the job of steering the class through the rough low sophomore year, were Andre Phillips, Sally Shaw, Sandi Blair, and Elaine Samson serving as President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and Juror, respectively. These officers did much to co-ordinate and turn a flock of lost sheep into an active, enthusiastic class.

By the time the high sophomore year rolled around, four new faces presented themselves as leaders. Richard Schindler, president; Mary Houchin, vice-president; Melodee Morrison, secretary-treasurer; and Sally Shaw, juror, began their terms.

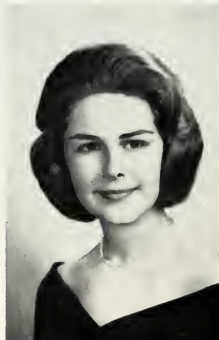

As high juniors, the class made a "first" in Lincoln history. It sponsored a movie-pizza feed. Needless to say it went over big; and pizza became the class's symbol of good luck. Planning and co-ordinating this event were Phil Hacker, president; Grace Relfe, vice-president; Karen Lones, Secretary-treasurer; and Judy Ecklund, juror.

Being a senior entails the undertaking of many serious responsibilities. The class did not shirk its duties; bravely and confidently it sponsored the turnabout, the Senior breakfast, and the Senior show. The hard working officers of the term were President, Bob Crane; Vice-President, Arlene Horn; Treasurer, Suzelle Crick; Secretary, Lynn Atkinson; and Juror, Marilyn Tatarian.

The low seniors received a banner with the words "High 'n Mighty." This was a very important day because the class was now the leader of the school. They were high seniors. Being a high senior involves connection with many wonderful occurrences. The senior exclusive, the term play, the senior ball, the graduation assembly, and the graduation itself were all eternally imprinted in the minds of 250 students.

As adviser of the Abraham Lincoln Roundup for the last fifteen years, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my deep appreciation to those who have helped make my task such a pleasant one.

First and foremost, publication of any of the volumes would not have been possible without the wholehearted cooperation and support of the students. A willingness on their part to devote hours and hours of extra work—to meet in Room 324 at the unbelievable hour of 7 o'clock in the morning—to give of their lunch periods—to work after school and on week-ends—all of these combine to make the post of Yearbook adviser so richly rewarding. Editors and staff members, past and present, I thank you! Lincoln has been proud that its book has always been produced in San Francisco. Howard Watson of Lexicon Press, the Borden Press, Ed Taylor and Anthony Virgilio, of Western Engraving, Ted Mentzer and his lovely wife Thelma, of Portola Studios, these and many others gave of their time and wisdom in assisting our work. And John Alden of S. K. Smith covers was always willing to be of service. My thanks to you all.

And my special thanks to those of the faculty and administration of Lincoln High School for their willingness to recognize that emergencies do exist and that it might sometimes be necessary to seek the services of a student outside of regular class time.

I hope you, the reader, will enjoy our 1964 effort. We did our best.

Class of Spring 1964

In the Fall of 1961, the large class of sophomores began its first Lincoln year by electing the following officers: Rick Harkness, President; Kathy Daugherty, Vice-President; Marti Davis, Secretary-Treasurer; Joanne Voltmer, Juror. During the second semester, the St. Patrick's Day dance was the class's first successful activity. The officers included President Rick Harkness, Vice-President Diane Escoffon, Secretary-Treasurer Joanne Voltmer, and Juror Sandie Rice.

Under the direction of President Jim Preston, Vice-President Laura Lively, Secretary-Treasurer Marti Davis, and Juror Gale Bradley, the new Low Juniors worked towards their Junior Prom. The High Junior year presented a fund-raising project—a movie for the class. President Larry Dito, Vice-President Priscilla Miles, Secretary Joanne Voltmer, Treasurer

Nancie Brush, and Juror Rita Stork, planned the Junior Prom at the St. Francis Hotel on May 18, 1963.

As big Low Seniors, the class displayed new confidence and spirit. The turnout was a financial and social success. Finally the day came when the Spring '64 Class received the HIGH N MIGHTY banner. It was a thrilling event, especially for the Low Senior officers—President Jim Lewis, Vice-President Laura Lively, Secretary Marti Davis, Treasurer Bev Ginther, and Juror Joanne Voltmer. Hard-working High Senior officers included President Jim Lewis, Vice-President Laura Lively, Secretary Marti Davis, Treasurer Ed Sterling, and Juror Gus Lee. Comprised of 694 students, the class of Spring 1964 ended its reign at Lincoln in the Masonic Temple on June 9, 1964. It was now a class of the past.

Kay Sullivan.

Kay Sullivan, a name synonymous with Girls Physical Education at Abraham Lincoln High School.

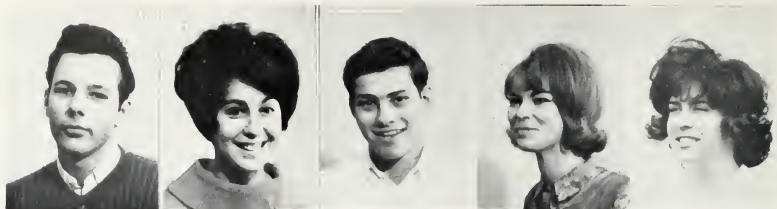

Kay Sullivan, one who can with pride look at Lincoln's beautiful girl's gym and say truthfully, "I am responsible for that building."

Lincoln—faculty and students alike—are reluctant to admit that you are leaving us, Kay Sullivan, for a life of retired leisure. But we must recognize the fact that this semester will be your last.

We wish you the best of everything, Kay. You truly deserve it.

The fall Student Council was under Bob Crane, assisted by Vice President Marilyn Tatarian.

The other officers who made this a spirited and financially-successful term were Judy Ecklund, judge; Pat Hogan, treasurer; Karen Lones and Lynn Atkinson, secretaries; Larry Dito, director of athletics; Jim Preston, director of properties; and the ever-popular John O'Connell, yell leader.

Together the officers worked to plan rallies, school activities, and the two student body dances of the semester—the annual Bell Hop, and a Christmas dance, the Holly Hop.

Roundup Staffs

Under the directions of Fall Editor Marilyn Turkel and Spring Editor Marti Davis, the Roundup staffs met at 7:45 A.M. to produce this yearbook. Not only was this the staff members' senior year, but it was also Mr. Walter Schmidt's last year as the Roundup advisor. Although his assignment to publications was to be a temporary position, he continued the job for fifteen years.

The department editors, including Photographers Bob Zipser and Robert Larson, deserve special attention. But Mr. Schmidt deserves the full credit. Without his guiding hand, there might not have been a yearbook for each of the past fourteen years, yet alone a '64 Roundup.

Log Staffs

The Lincoln LOG, champion of lost causes, lost two of its own early in the spring semester. After a successful fall semester under Editor Dave Gevanthor, the LOG abruptly used three editors on as many editions. At the end of it all, Pat Hogan and Dave were strengthening the Copy Desk, and Merry Minkler was the editor.

The LOG, never afraid of controversial issues, turned in the spring to in-school straight reporting—and promptly became embroiled in two scandals.

The first regarded the printing of a Lincoln plaque by the school. The LOG said Lincoln never said it. Trouble was, everybody knew it.

The second was over a sports story, "Payne replaces Ryan" as basketball. Trouble was, nobody knew it. Not even Coach Payne, or Ryan. Or the guys who appointed him. Just the LOG.

Inherit the Wind (Fall '63)

The cast of the fall term play was the biggest ever! Because there were enough talented people to play all the roles, the play promised to be the best play that Lincoln had ever presented. And it was!

Back from "The Mouse Trap" were John O'Connell and Grant Olsen. This year John played a cynical newspaper reporter "from that modern, wicked Sodom and Gomorrah, Baltimore." Grant Olsen, who had one of the leading roles, played Mathew Harrison Brady, the prosecuting lawyer.

Coming back from "Twelve Angry Women" were Roxanne Stein and John Watson. Roxanne played the role of Rachel, which was the girl's lead in the play. John played the role of Reverend Brown.

Featured in other roles were the new faces who will move into lead roles in the coming years.

Charlie's Aunt (Spring '64)

The term play for the Spring term was the story of two Oxford students, Jack and Charles, who are in love with two young ladies, Kitty and Amy. They invite the girls to their room for a luncheon to meet Charley's wealthy aunt. When the aunt sends word that she can't come, the boys solve the problem by forcing another Oxford student — Lord Fancourt—into playing the role of Charley's aunt. Then the real aunt turns up, and the fun begins.

The role of Jack was played by Jeff Nossen, a familiar figure to play audiences. Roxanne Stein, Sue Nicholas, Jack Dender, and Charlie Berliner combined with Jeff to make this off-beat comedy a hit.

Big Brothers

Sponsored by Mr. Bill O'Keefe, the organization of Big Brothers is made up of senior boys. Last term the officers were Greg Baecher, president; Dan O'Brien, vice president; John Merryman, secretary; Peter Ballin, treasurer; and Terry McIntyre, sergeant at arms. The organization's main activity was to greet the low sophomore boys and help them become acquainted with Lincoln. They were in charge of the supervision of the rooting section at games. On the social level activities were a Big Brother- Big Sister volleyball game, a faculty-Big Brothers basketball game, and a Big Brother-Big Sister picnic. The Big Brothers also participated in the Forty Links annual Carnival by sponsoring a dart throwing contest.

Big Sisters

The enthusiastic officers and sponsors of the Big Sisters for Spring 1964 term were as follows: Pam Bernauer, President; Joanne Voltmer, Vice President; Pam Haun, Treasurer; Marti Davis, Secretary; and Mrs. Lucille Friedman, Sponsor.

The duties of this fine group include calling the "Little Ones" before school begins in order to answer any questions they may ask.

During the year, the Big Sisters gave a tea for the "Little Ones," served refreshments at P.T.A. meetings, served at faculty meetings, and sold cookies. They kept time for a Forensics Tournament, had a booth at the 40 Links Carnival, and challenged the Big Brothers to a volleyball game. Of course, the Big Brothers won the game!

Student Council

The Student Council is made up of the student body officers, the class presidents, and the editors of the Roundup and Log. It meets in the Student Body Office every Tuesday morning and has the most important task of uniting the various school organizations. Student body president, Larry Dito, conducted the meetings and provided the leadership which gave unity to school functions. The primary purpose of the Student Council is to provide a place where school organizations can ask for money and find out what activities are planned. This year the Student Council had the very important task of amending the school constitution to allow for the revision of the Lincoln High Handbook.

Student Assembly

The Student Assembly meets with the Student Body Vice President every second Wednesday. Composed of one elected representative of each registry, the Assembly is a student forum.

At its meetings, members of the school Administration keep registry representatives informed on school activities and events.

Student Court

The Student Court is the judicial organ of student government at Lincoln. It convenes every Friday morning to deal with offenses committed during the preceding week.

Although the Court is patterned on criminal court, it requires no witnesses, and its rules and procedures have traditionally been less favorable to the defendant.

Rally and Block L Committee

The Rally Committee, sponsored by Mr. Harvey Christensen, has been at Lincoln for many years. The members of the Boys' Block "L," who make up the Committee, have participated in sports throughout their years at Lincoln. Their major duty is to keep order at the rallies. A new rule was passed this year, by the City, prohibiting students from smoking in Kezar Pavilion during high school basketball games. The schools are requested to assign committees to keep students from smoking in the Pavilion. This was one of the major jobs of the Rally Committee this year. Erik Schutter was the president of the Boys' Block "L" this past term.

Fall — GAA — Spring

These active girls receive many benefits from participating in various intramural and interscholastic sports. Included in their well-rounded athletic program are tennis, volleyball, badminton, bowling, tap dancing, horse back riding, and modern dance.

The Girls' Athletic Association enables girls to develop their skills in these activities while it helps them to acquire good traits of sportsmanship, teamwork, and co-operation.

The activities were organized by their sponsor, Mrs. Metcalf, and by their officers Pam Bernauer, President; Sue Hanson, Vice President; Judy Gild, Corresponding Secretary; Lynn Storm, Recording Secretary; Barbara Roselyn, Publicity.

Forensics

Forensic is an academic team of Lincoln High School. Members have tournaments against other San Francisco and Bay area schools. Each semester the Forensic Club takes students to numerous events, where they have a chance to compete with others. President Mary Bray, Vice President Davanna Klor, Secretary Louise Decottignes, and Sergeant at Arms Pat Hogan, have helped make this year's club very successful. This term's activities included competition in the Lions Club, Native Sons of the Golden West, and Golden Gate Speech Association Tournaments. Each year students from the Bay Area schools compete for the Sweepstakes Award. This award is given to the school with the most individual wins. Lincoln took fourth place in this year's Sweepstakes.

A Cappella Choir

Our A Cappella Choir is well known throughout the city for its fine performances. Its officers for the past term are Brian Smith, President; Marie Schweifler, Treasurer, Priscilla Miles, Secretary; Joy Green, Concert Director; Jim Dierke, Publicity Manager; and Jerry Kay and Priscilla Miles, Student Directors.

Their work, and the dedication of the other choir members, have brought pleasure to audiences and wide acclaim to Lincoln's Choir.

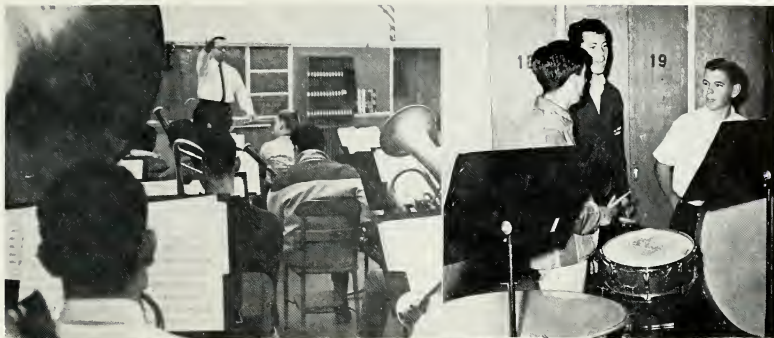

Dance Band

A feature of many of Lincoln's dances is the fine music supplied by our Dance Band. The following are members of the band. Saxes: John Semion, Don Kane, Ed Margolin, Oren Ridenour, and Vinve Gueren. Trumpets: Jerry Eliaser, Dave Kenny, Jeff Colton, Ron Tse, and Mike Lucibello. Trombones: Jan Vanderford, Sam Osborne, and Jim Dierke. Larry Schultz is on the drums and Dave Smith on the piano.

A dedicated group which receives little notice at Lincoln is the corps of cadets in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC). Under the guidance of Sergeants Hofferber, Buddington and Young, these boys have achieved outside recognition while going unnoticed around school.

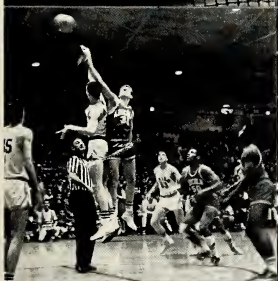

In the past year they have taken part in many parades including those on Columbus Day and St. Patrick's Day in San Francisco. They have also marched in parades in Santa Rosa and Guerneville, and toured various military installations, including the San Francisco Presidio and Fort Point.

During the Fall term, Cadet/Lieutenant Colonel Anthony Boxer was highest ranking cadet officer, and therefore in charge of the ROTC at Lincoln. He was also the Brigade Commander of the ROTC in all seven of the city's high schools. When he graduated in January, Cadet/Colonel William Miller took over his post at Lincoln.

Shown above is the type of action that made the 1963 season a thrilling one for Lincolnites. Student Body President Bob Crane is breaking away for one of his many touchdowns gallops during the year. He was hailed as one of the outstanding runners ever to be produced in the San Francisco Football League.

Fall 1963 Football Team

Lincoln's varsity football team opened the 1963 season with the Mustang's victory by a landslide over the Poly Parrots 26-0. Fullback Bob Crane scored three touchdowns with Al Alston also showing his ability and adding six more points to our Mustang lead. The season was off to a good start.

The Lincoln vs. Saint Ignatius game proved to be one of the most exciting of the season with S.I. barely squeezing past the Links with a score of 26-20. Spirit for the S.I. game was tremendous, and this remained even when S.I. was leading by two touchdowns. The Links bounced back to tie this but we lost by a final touchdown in the closing minutes of the game.

The Mustangs suffered their second big defeat of the season after playing Sacred Heart on our field.

The Irish led through the first half, but the Links returned in the 4th quarter with Bob Crane's interception and a 50 yard run to make the score 13 to 12. Penalties made the final score 15-12.

Bell Game Disaster

The 19th annual Bell Game was held at the Washington field, with a great turnout of fans and a spirited team. The Links and Eagles fought all the way, but the Eagles' line was strong. We suffered our 4th defeat, 14-13. The Eagles' cheering section won the megaphone also.

The Lincoln team bounced back with easy victories over Galileo by 33-6, and Mission 31-0.

But the Mustangs were again defeated by our arch-rival, Lowell. They were leading at the end of the second quarter, 13-6. In the last quarter the Links evened out the score, but the Indians made another touchdown, defeating us by 20 to 13, with our team just yards from the goal.

The Lincoln High team, however, did make the City's semi-final playoffs. Lincoln played Saint Ignatius, but was defeated by a score of 33-6.

Fullback Bob Crane made the All-City first string, and Al Alston made the second string.

The 1963 football season was shown to display much team spirit and determination. Coach Bill Holland is to be commended, and Lincoln High should be proud of his efforts.

Out in the open and nowhere to go but deep into opponent's territory. Bob Crane, the terror of open field runners of the 1963 season, amassed one of the largest totals of any ball carrier in Lincoln history.

Soccer

At Lincoln, soccer is becoming more and more popular. Coach Harvey Christensen is signing up students who wish to participate, even though they lack the necessary training.

The top two players of the Lincoln soccer team are Micha Riemer and Pete Silberstein. Of course these two players do not make up the whole team. It took teamwork and co-operation not only from the two top players, but from the whole team itself to make it what it is. Next year when the soccer season opens, their spirit and enthusiasm will bring new glory to Lincoln High.

Cross Country Coursers

Paced by Joe Singer, a 9:40 runner over the Golden Gate Park course, the Mustang cross-country team last fall swept easily through its league dual meets.

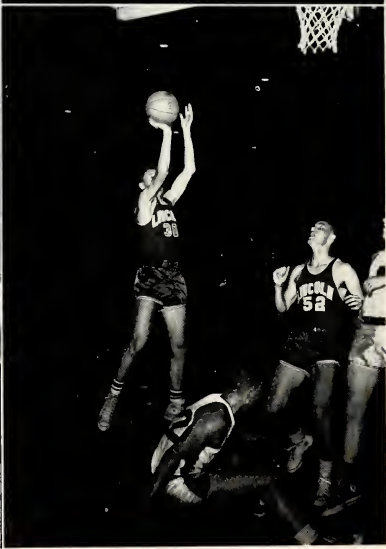

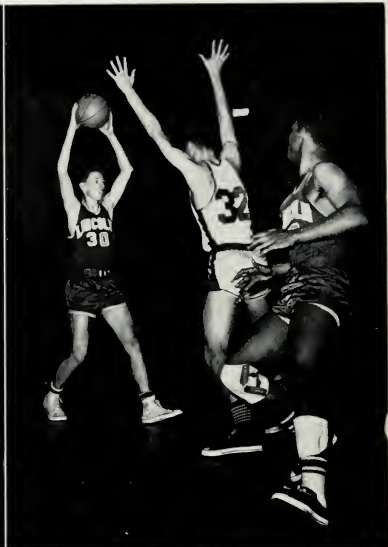

Also placing in the Mustang varsity were John Merryman, Gil Koerger, Les Arnold. The JV's were led by Harold Wright and Lenny Schainsinger.

In All City, the Mustang varsity took only a second place, edged out by Poly runners; but only because John Merryman and Joe Singer—undefeated in league meets—were troubled with injuries and sickness.

Varsity Basketeers Great

We, the students of Abraham Lincoln, are proud of the fight our basketball team gave in an effort to bring a championship to Lincoln.

Lincoln started the season off with a bang by running past Poly 75-37. Next, Lincoln easily beat a real strong Balboa team by the score of 75-50. Washington, rated the strongest team in the AAA, handed Lincoln their first and only loss of the regular season.

The Mustangs got back on the winning trail against Wilson and Galileo in preparation for the S.I. game. The Links played their best game of the year in beating S.I. handily.

Then came the last game of the season against Sacred Heart. This was a crucial game for Lincoln because if Lincoln won, it would throw the AAA basketball race into a three way tie for first place. The outcome of the game was in doubt throughout with both teams playing superb basketball. It was a hard fought game with Lincoln coming out on top 50-49.

Even though Lincoln lost in the playoffs, in their quest for a championship they placed three boys on all city, Al Weaver, first team; Willie Jones and Roger Langlois, second team.

Thirties Win Three

The 130-pound basketballers terminated the season of 1964 with a three-win and six-loss record. There are no excuses to explain the team's record. The boys tried their level best to keep the team on top. But a team cannot be judged by its record. Every minute spent in competitive sports can be marked up to the most valuable award that can be obtained, experience. The members of the 130's basketball team spent many hours after school in grueling practice so as to prove difficult competition in all of their games.

It is usually the custom of the varsity team to overshadow these lightweight sportsmen, but the rooting section of Lincoln was just as vigorous in support of the lightweight as it was in support of the heavyweights.

The team suffered close losses in falling to SI, SH, and Poly—each by one point. And they lost to Mission in overtime by 47-42. The brightest light was a victory against Lowell, in which Coach Greenberg's theory of "overall teamship" showed perfection.

Natators Unlimited

Another top contender this year was Coach Donald Daniels' swimming team.

Bob Martin swam all strokes and came through with a first every meet.

Another promising swimmer was Rick Harkness, who swam the 200-yard Individual Medley (50 yards butterfly, 50 yards breast-stroke, 50 yards back-stroke, and 50 yards freestyle).

Other standouts included Bob Bloecher (50-yard freestyle) and Greg Baecher (considered to be the best breast-stroker on the team). Jim Bandy took top honors for the team in diving.

30's Swimmers

The 130's swimming team is coached by Mr. Daniels. Tuning up during the pre-season the 130's took on all teams around the Bay Area. They never tasted defeat. The regular season started April 8th, with the toughest foe in the city. The 130's lost by only 2 points to S.I. The loss against S.I. might well be their first and last defeat all season. All city prospects from the 130's are Skip Jones, breast stroke and Bob Bryant, breast stroke.

And the 20's

The 120's swimming team is also coached by Mr. Daniels as are all the swimming teams from our school. Before the regular schedule of A.A.A. meets the 120's have won 4 and lost 2. The team is led by Harry and Ron White, all around swimmers, and John Wedell, who swims the 50 free-style, possible all city choice. It is a solid team that should have a winning season.

Varsity and Lightweight Track

With a fine league record and a good showing against the fast All-City competition, Lincoln's track team has finished a season to be proud of.

Larry Dito, a 50-foot-plus shotputter, paced the Academic Athletic Association. Lincoln's Joe Singer was Ken Howard's top competitor in the mile, with both breaking 4:30.

Les Arnold and Gil Koerger were outstanding on the 880, hitting 2:01 by midseason. Broad-jumper Mack Morgan was long picked for All-City with his 22-foot leaps.

Wayne McConico has been a true standout for the Lincoln varsity. He runs the 220 (0:22.0), the 440 (0:51.8), and the anchor leg of the 880 relay.

But the Mustangs' real strength this year lay in the lightweight events.

Lincoln had the city's best 1320 runner in John Merryman, who was consistently under 3:27. Right behind him was Pat Hogan (3:32), who also ran the 660, where he and Lenny Schainsinger were 1-2 for the team. For All-City, the Mustang lightweight field held Dennis Hoyt, whom a year before had set the 120's record in the 660.

The sometimes-forgotten 120's featured a display of speed in the 75, 150, and 330. The key men appear to have been Ernest Carr and Tom Radin.

Lincoln's lightweighters were tabbed the team to beat.

Varsity and J. V. Baseball

Although their victories were by decisive margins (the best: 13-2, over Washington), there is not too much that could be said for the varsity club this year.

Weakened by last year's graduation, the Mustangs depended on six players for most of their strength. Paul Clayton, a sophomore, provided the pitching in a string of brilliant starting and relieving roles. Rounding out the sextet were the starters noted for hitting and fielding: Catcher Bill Mustanich, center-fielder Al Weaver, first-baseman Rudy Leuhs, second-baseman Willie Jones, and pitcher-outfielder Denny Moore.

The junior varsity baseball team got off to a fast start, with three wins against one loss, and never stopped moving.

Heading the club in batting were Joe Dombek, Mel Jones, and Dave Herman, the rbi leader.

The Staff of the 1964 Roundup is proud to open this advertisement section with a tribute to the Abraham Lincoln High School Parent Teacher Association.

Always willing to help—whether the assistance be financial or otherwise—always seeking new ways to bridge the gap between school and home and to make education a twenty-four hour process—the members of our PTA have earned a large share of the credit for bringing Lincoln High to the forefront of San Francisco's high schools.

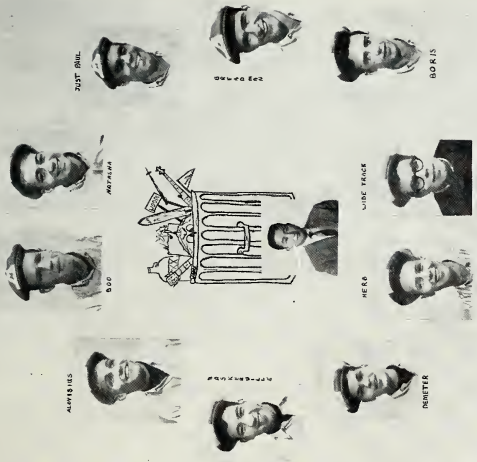

It is difficult to single out any one accomplishment of the PTA above all others, but the Roundup Staff must make special mention of the Scholarship Program that made it possible for so many deserving graduates to continue an education that otherwise would have been denied to them.

We of the Roundup Staff thank you, Mr. and Mrs. PTA, for your financial assistance in making this book possible and wish you well.
